Honorable Members of the Court

RE: Professional Rules of Conduct, rule 8.4(g)

You have called for public comment of the proposed new Rule 8.4(g) of the Professional Rules of Conduct for Montana Attorneys. As a concerned citizen, I hereby submit my request that you reject this rule.

Within a few minutes after hearing on the TV about a "mother" in Carolina, (I think) demanding that a school board order the removal of "To Kill a Mockingbird" a classic book, from school libraries then an acquaintance informed me about this (8.4). and it struck a nerve in me.

I did not vote for Trump, however, there is a reason many people are fed up with the squeak of a single person, or a tiny minority can get our govt. Federal, State, or Local, to trample the rights of a large proportion of the population for things that make no sense.

Rules against slavery, (supported by many "Christians") were absolutely necessary, as well as some pertaining to the rights of the lgbt group, but let's be reasonable. To disbar a lawyer for his belief that "Marriage is between a man and a woman". Red is not Blue, black is not white, if two people want a civil union and get the resulting tax benefits or whatever, fine but to disbar a lawyer for speaking his belief is disgusting to me. We can't speak of Christ in our history books only the political or military leaders. No Christ in Christmas, but Rudolf, Santa Clause, Xmas, that is all fine. The make believe is ok in our public schools, something, or someone, who is a vital part of world history, is not. We allow Brightbart and neo-nazis, etc. to spout their rhetoric all over the internet and in public,

Sincerely yours

Daniel W. Nardinger
